Call to order:

Al Koeske, President, called meeting to order at 1912 at the Carmel Police Department in the Training Room.

Minutes:

Minutes read and approved. A Koeske moved to approve and P. McCallister seconded. Motion carried.

Treasurers Report:

Report read. J. Woods moved to approve and T. Arnold seconded. Motion carried.

Old Business:

Letter of appreciation was sent to Judge Gail Bardach for sharing her time with us and enlightening us on the role of her court and her role as Judge.

CPD CA AA members assisted with the Chaucie's House fund raising dinner. Chaucie's Place is where caring, protection, and healing come together. It is a center that provides a unique approach to the investigation of cases of abuse and neglect of children in Hamilton County.

New Business:

Nominations of officers are

President: Tony Arnold
First Vice President: Donna Prather
Second Vice President: Kathy Kuster
Secretary: Barb Coss
Treasurer: Patti McCallister
Executive Board Chairman: Al Koeske
Executive Board Member at Large: Ken Yamasaki

Judy Benner moved to close nominations and accept these nominations for office. Bob Land seconded. Motion carried.

Ann Gallagher will be the Chief's representative instead of a second CPD Officer.

CPD Citizen's Academy graduated Class # 10 in November. CPD CA AA has funded $2,500 for Class #11.

Ann Gallagher announced the formation of the Carmel Police Department Teen Academy. CPD Police Officer Lt. Bickel provided more information as to what the kids will be learning. Kids must be 13 years minimum to apply. They have a choice of either June 12-16th or July 10-14th to attend the Teen Academy.

The next meeting date February 15th, time and place to be announced.

By consensus the meeting was adjourned to start the program, Holiday Safety, with CPD Police Officer Lt. Bickel presenting.

Respectfully submitted,
Donna Prather, Secretary
CPDCAAA
